South Florida Management Consulting Firm Meets With Governor Crist to Discuss Strategies for Increasing Employment in Florida

MIAMI – October 16, 2009 –South Florida Management Consulting Firm, Auxis, Inc.'s Chief Operating Officer, Raul Vega discussed ways to increase employment opportunities in Florida at Governor Crist's Hispanic Business Roundtable at the Capitol in Tallahassee on October 13, 2009.

"It's critical that we develop Florida's economy with increased employment opportunities but we also need to support the market growth by being more cost competitive with offshore locations," said Vega. "The state can effectively accomplish this objective with investment incentives."

Governor Charlie Crist hosted the roundtable on how to help strengthen Florida's economy in observation of Hispanic Heritage Month and Florida Small Business Month. Vega was amongst several Florida Hispanic business leaders addressing the best ways to meet the needs of Florida's Hispanic business community and promote business growth in the State. The executives shared ideas on how the government can continue to provide an efficient and business-friendly environment.

Vega has over 18 years of professional management and consulting experience, having previously worked for Pepsi Cola Company International and Price Waterhouse. He has significant field experience throughout the Americas and a strong record of achievement in food and beverage, transportation and consumer products industries. He is a Certified Public Accountant and graduate of the University of Florida, where he earned a Masters Degree in Accounting. Vega's company, Auxis, has worked with over 200 businesses in Florida, helping to improve business performance and create profitable business growth.
